Student Conduct Process

This is not an official statement of The University of Texas at Austin’s discipline policies and procedures. The relevant policies of the Institutional Rules for Student Services and Activities are stated in the General Information catalog, Appendix C, Chapter 11, available online at deanofstudents.utexas.edu/conduct

Faculty Member suspects student of academic dishonesty (academic misconduct only)

Faculty Member meets with student

Student accepts responsibility and signs Faculty Disposition

Faculty Disposition is forwarded to The Office of the Dean of Students where it is reviewed and determined if additional sanctions are warranted, and if so, assess an additional sanction(s)

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity receives referral of alleged violation (academic and general misconduct)

The Office of the Dean of Students staff meets with student

The Office of the Dean of Students may determine that evidence supports a finding of violation and proposes an appropriate sanction(s). Student is presented with an Administrative Disposition

Student disputes allegations and Faculty Member submits a Faculty Referral

Student accepts the Administrative Disposition while retaining the right to appeal the sanction(s). In some cases, the student may appeal both the findings and the sanctions to the Vice President for Student Affairs

Within 14 days student may appeal the decision to the university president, who may uphold or modify the findings and/or sanction(s) of the hearing officer(s) decision.

Within 14 days student may request a hearing with the Student Conduct Board (academic only) or Hearing Officer

Hearing Officer(s) either dismisses the case or finds student in violation of the Institutional Rules and imposes an appropriate sanction(s)

Student accepts findings and sanction(s). The Administrative Disposition is final.

Student Conduct Process