Student Conduct Process

This is not an official statement of The University of Texas at Austin’s discipline policies and procedures. The official policies are stated in the General Information catalog, Appendix C, Chapter 11, available online at deanofstudents.utexas.edu/conduct

Faculty Member suspects student of academic dishonesty

Faculty Member meets with student

Student accepts responsibility and signs Faculty Disposition

Faculty Disposition is forwarded to The Office of the Dean of Students where it is reviewed and determined if additional sanctions are warranted, and if so, assess an additional sanction

Student accepts Administrative Disposition while retaining the right to appeal sanction. By accepting an Administrative Disposition, a student waives his or her rights to a hearing. (academic or suspension/expulsion cases only)

Within 14 days of accepting the Disposition, student may appeal only the sanction to the university president. University president may approve, reject or modify the sanction of the Disposition.

Student disputes findings and/or sanctions.

University President’s designee may approve, reject, or modify the findings and/or sanction of the Administrative Disposition

Hearing finder either dismisses the case or finds student in violation of the Institutional Rules and imposes an appropriate sanction

Within 14 days, student may appeal the decision to the university president. University president may approve, reject or modify the findings and/or sanctions of the hearing officers decision.

Student Conduct and Academic Integrity receives referral of suspected violation

The Office of the Dean of Students staff meets with student

The Office of the Dean of Students may determine that evidence supports a finding of violation and proposes an appropriate sanction. Student is presented with an Administrative Disposition Form

Student disputes allegations and Faculty Member submits a Faculty Referral

Student Conduct Process

Our office will maintain a disciplinary record for seven years.