"I'm going through the Burnt Orange Society curriculum to help connect my campus experiences to my future career."

- Ethan Balsamo, Accounting Senior

“Student Emergency Services felt so personal and professional, and I received the help I needed quickly.”

- UT Student
The Office of the Dean of Students engages students beyond the classroom to enrich learning through leadership training, and by supporting the membership of 1,300 student organizations. Office services for students also include legal, conduct, emergency, veterans, research and other support.

Leadership & Ethics Institute
A centralized resource for comprehensive undergraduate and graduate leadership training programs, incorporating both the theory and practice of ethical leadership development.

Legal Services for Students
Offers enrolled students free consultation, representation and legal services pertaining to landlord-tenant disputes, alcohol-related offenses and many other issues.

Dean of Students Research Institute
Conducts and translates higher education research to improve decision-making and student development practice among faculty and student affairs staff.

Student Judicial Services
Works with students, faculty and staff to promote academic integrity and other appropriate standards of conduct for the university community. Also investigates alleged violations of University Institutional Rules.

Student Veteran Services
Dedicated to providing veterans, military personnel and their families with the support needed to make the most of their educational experience.

Student Activities
Supports 1,300 registered and sponsored student organizations by helping them navigate, identify and utilize campus resources. Provides support for dynamic and successful programming.

Legislative Student Organizations
