Course Description

This class is designed to facilitate the development of student leaders within Sororities and Fraternities at the University of Texas at Austin. Through discussion and the shared experiences of class members, particular attention is given to the leadership challenges that exist within the University of Texas at Austin Sorority and Fraternity community. In addition to covering the broad concepts of leadership, the course focuses on skills development in some of the following areas: academics, risk management, diversity and community service. The class will be held on Tuesdays from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Sanchez Building Room 444 during the fall semester. If you are selected to participate in the course you will be notified via email by one of the instructors and approved to register.
