Peer Leadership Educator

Position Description 2014-2015

Description

The University of Texas Leadership and Ethics Institute (LEI) and the Office of the Dean of Students (DoS) seeks to select, train, and develop a team of outstanding Peer Leadership Educators to facilitate leadership workshops for student organizations, promote leadership initiatives, and serve as a resources for leadership development on campus. Peer Leadership Educators will receive individualized training opportunities and support from LEI staff. Participation in this program will help students prepare and hone their facilitation skills and provide students the opportunity to engage and connect with a wide variety of campus leaders.

Responsibilities

- Facilitate leadership workshops to students in a wide variety of settings including, student organizations, FIGs, residence hall groups, etc
- Provide a variety of educational resources and services to the campus community
- Serve as outreach coordinators for leadership workshops and involvement opportunities on campus
- Serve as a resource to consult, discuss and brainstorm how to create positive change on campus and within student organizations
- Serve as liaisons and student representatives for LEI & DoS
- Utilize social media outlets to promote and highlight student leaders, organizations and leadership opportunities on campus
- Other duties related to position as assigned

Benefits of being a Peer Leadership Educator

- Individualized training and development opportunities for personal growth as a facilitator, presenter and outreach coordinator
- Practical, hands-on experience facilitating workshops for large and small groups
- Networking opportunities to connect with student organizations, staff, faculty, and departments on campus

Commitments & Expectations

- Commit to the position for the 2014-2015 Academic Year
- Commit to a minimum of 5-10 hours per week during the academic year (hours per week may vary from week to week depending on programs)
- Attend mandatory weekly meetings
- Must have and maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or above
- Must be a full-time UT Austin undergraduate or graduate student