Student Emergency Services (SES) in the Office of the Dean of Students serves as a primary point of contact for students and their families, and assists with navigating campus and community resources.

How can Student Emergency Services help?
- Coordinate with family
- Discrete professor notifications regarding absences
- Emergency funds
- Short-term emergency housing accommodations
- Information regarding course load reductions or full withdrawals
- Referrals to appropriate campus offices: Counseling and Mental Health Center, Legal Services for Students, Student Judicial Services, Services for Students with Disabilities, Center for Students in Recovery, Academic Departments

Any incident involving harassment, stalking, sexual misconduct, sexual assault or assault is serious, and the following resources are here to help:
- University Police Department (UTPD) or Austin Police Department (APD) — you can report an incident with or without filing charges: 512-471-4441
- Sexual Assault Forensic Exam (SAFE) — through St. David’s Hospital: 512-544-8145
- Counseling and Mental Health Center (CMHC): 512-471-3515
- CMHC Crisis Line: 512-471-CALL (2255); 24/7
- Voices Against Violence (VAV) — part of CMHC, operates the VAV Survivors Emergency Fund: 512-471-3515
- University Health Services (UHS) — STI and pregnancy testing: 512-471-4955
- Student Judicial Services (SJS) — to report student-against-student issues: 512-471-2841
- Legal Services for Students (LSS) — for lawyer referrals or representation: 512-471-7796
- Civil Court System — to pursue civil charges: 512-854-9306
- Domestic Violence Clinic — through the University of Texas School of Law: 512-232-1358
- SURE Walk — request an escort when walking on or near campus: 512-232-9255 or utsg.org/projects/sure-walk
- Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) — physical self defense course for women offered by UTPD: utexas.edu/police/rad
- Office of the Registrar — to restrict your directory information: registrar.utexas.edu/students/records/restrictmyinfo
- University Title IX Resource Guide — for comprehensive information on Title IX and the Univesity Resource Guide: utexas.edu/student-affairs/policies/title-ix

Preservation of evidence may be critical to an investigation should you wish to proceed with a criminal, civil or university investigation, now or in the future. (Examples of evidence include but are not limited to: not showering, not washing related clothes or linens, pictures, text messages, and social media communications between you and the alleged or related to the incident.)

CMHC/VAV, UHS and SES allow walk-in appointments during normal business hours: Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–5 p.m.. For additional information or support, please visit deanofstudents.utexas.edu/emergency or call Student Emergency Services at 512-471-5017.