Guidelines for Campus Demonstrations

PRACTICE
- Wearing recommended protective face masks
- Social distancing – remain at least 6 feet apart from others
- Assembling peacefully
- Participating in meaningful discussions
- Handing out flyers and brochures
- Allowing a ten-foot perimeter of clearance around academic buildings
- Respecting other demonstrators' ability to engage in speech and displaying messages without blocking the view of participants or causing the speaker to not be heard
- Following university policies and procedures

AVOID
- Blocking entrances and exits
- Creating disruptions in buildings or at university events
- Vandalizing campus
- Engaging in physical violence or inciting others to take violent actions
- Using amplified sound (sound with volume increased by any electronic, mechanical, or motor-powered means) without reservation or outside of the designated amplified sound areas
- Attempting to force others to view or listen to a message by coercion, badgering, or intimidation

Learn more about the Institutional Rules on Student Services and Activities Chapter 13 - Speech, Expression, and Assembly.

The University of Texas at Austin
Student Activities Office of the Dean of Students