

2016 Election Supervisory Board

In Res. Kevin Helgren and Binna Kim

ESB Resolution: 2016-008

- Whereas, Title III, Chapter IV, Section 4.4 (c) states: “A candidate has forty-eight (48) hours from the announcement of the election results to pay his or her fines in-full, else the Election Supervisory Board may disqualify the candidate.” And,
- Whereas, Acknowledging and paying a fine are two distinct actions, in which acknowledging includes stating any imposed on financial disclosures, making paying irrelevant to this consideration; and,
- Whereas, The forty-eight hours does not apply to fines levied by the Election Supervisory Board, as we only issue reductions in spending limits, and you cannot actually make a payment on a fine; and therefore, let it be,
- Resolved, That this interpretation be included as additional clarification for ESB Resolution 2016-008.